

IS TV YOUR SHEPHERD?

“The TV is my shepherd; I shall not want.
It maketh me to lie down on the sofa.
It leadeth me away from the Scripture.
It destroyeth my soul.
It leadeth me in the paths of immorality,
for the sponsor’s sake.

Yea, though I walk in the shadow of my responsibilities,
there will be no interruptions,
for the TV is with me.
Its cable and wireless controls, they comfort me.
It prepareth a commercial before me,
in the presence of my carnality.
It anointeth my head with humanism.
My coveting runneth over.

Surely laziness and ignorance shall follow me all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the family room
with my TV forever.”¹
